Snips and Cluts

Fred - you've really made a success
of this first year at
C.H.S. Best of everything for a wonderful future. Love you
Hansel & Gretel

Senator,
We've had a lot of fun in Biology

Fred,
It really has been nice knowing a swell guy like you all these years. I'll fine never forget a always remember some of the good times we have had together. We
and success to you always
"Senator" Love,
Jackie

Fred,
At first I didn't know
you very well, but what time I've known you has been great. I don't know of a boy in C. H. S. that has the personality you do. As far as the telephone goes, it's been fun even though it tired me off a little. I hope we will have many classes together next year. Hope to see you this summer.
Love,
Nancy

F O R E W O R D

For the past three years we have been building a chain that binds us to Central. The strength of that chain lies in its links — molded from knowledge, experience, understanding, and spirit. We know that best everything

 a wonderful leader + a boy with great personality!!
 Carol
 McClenney

these strong links are only the first of a great number that will help us form the chain of life.

We, the Senior Class of 1953, present to you our chain of memories.

DEDICATION

Serving without praise—behind the scenes or in the spotlight, presenting knowledge with clarity and conciseness, supporting Central with loyalty and spirit—all of these are strong and beautiful links in any life's chain. We dedicate this volume of the SNIPS AND CUTS to a woman who has forged the chain of her life out of just such materials—MISS CATHERINE CLEGG.

CLASSES

We come as lowly sophomores,
Gazing with respect
At Central's stately buildings,
Stalwart and erect.

Some fear and much confusion
This first exciting year.
We settle down and one by one
Our qualms all disappear.

The days speed by before us;
Soon we realize
That we are mighty juniors,
Powerful and wise.

We feel a sense of purpose;
Our confidence is strong.
We walk the halls of Central
Feeling that we belong.

Our senior year is finished—
Filled with work and fun.
Now friends must part, well knowing
That life has just begun.

ACTIVITIES

Clubs are part of Central's life,
They teach a useful trait;
Working day by day we learn
How to cooperate.

The Key Club features leadership
And service to the school;
The Bible Club, religious needs:
We live the Golden Rule.

The Student Council governs well
With democratic zest.
The Honor Society members are
The high scholastic best.

The Dramatics Club has given us
Fine actors and good plays.
The band and chorus render us
Music to cheer our days.

There is a task for each of us,
No matter what our skill.
For Central trains for later life,
Our purpose to fulfill.

ATHLETICS

In early September the football team
Began its winning ways.

We started through a banner year
And many happy days.

Then in December basketball
Came into the light.

We won the conference championship
With spirit, hustle, and fight.

The tennis, track and baseball teams
Played their very best.

And Central showed in every way
She's better than the rest.

But winning's not the only thing
Learned in playing a game.

A little thing called sportsmanship
Is more than praise or fame.

FOOTBALL RESUME

ROCKY MOUNT 30-14

A surprisingly powerful Central team, under new grid coach Hank Madden, rolled an unexpected 30-14 victory over the Blackbirds from Rocky Mount in the 'Cats' debut for the '52 season.

Led by last year's only returning starter, Dickie Mattison, who tallied three touchdowns, Pete Burris, a sharp passing quarterback, and a determined defense, the 'Cats took an 18-0 lead at the half.

Working from the new split-T, Johnny Thomason, Ted Roberts, and Buddy Strause also displayed some hard running. Burris, who hit with six passes for 152 yards, uncorked a long touchdown heave which covered 90 yards the first time Madden's men got the pigskin.

Central's whole line, led by linebacker Bill Bullard, stood out on defense.

TECH 39-6

The Wildcats, with fancy stepping Steve Ingram and Buddy Strause at the helm, scrapped up a 39-6 victory over the Tech Wolves. Pulling to a 19-7 lead at the half, Central came back to add 20 more points while shutting out the Tech eleven. The 'Cats, under the strong wing of Pete Burris, with Ingram, Mattison, and Strause supplying the scoring punch, showed outstanding strength by crossing the goal nine times, but having three tallies nullified by penalties.

The Wolves' lone score came in the second quarter on a plunge from the one-yard line by Parks Helms, climaxing a 76-yard drive.

Central's line, which showed much improvement, halted many Wolfpack drives with the hard charging of Charles Skidmore, Jac ReVile, Ross Johnson, Bill Bullard, and Johnny Thomason.

GREENSBORO 13-0

Hitting the field for the '52 season's first conference game, Madden's warriors took an undisputed victory at the expense of the Greensboro Whirlies on the latter's home field. At the beginning whistle, Pete Burris threw a pass to Dickie Mattison good for 55 yards and a touchdown. Ingram added to his scoring total by climaxing a 75-yard march with another tally, making a 13-0 score at the end of the third quarter.

Central couldn't find the extra scoring punch, being stopped by penalties and fine Greensboro defensive play on numerous occasions, as is evident in Central's 262 yards rushing to 81 for the Whirlies.

Mattison, Thomason, Ingram, and Roberts were outstanding in the backfield; while Johnston, Martin, and Bullard led the line play for Central.

SALISBURY 39-27

One of the finest displays of offensive power in the history of Charlotte prep football was put on in Memorial Stadium by the Central Wildcats and Salisbury Yellow Jackets in the 'Cats' second conference game of the '52 season. With both teams showing highly talented elvens, sparked by Ken Owen of Salisbury and Mattison of Central, the lead changed three times, but ended in Central's favor, 39-27.

Both teams scored the first time they gained possession of the ball, with Central's tally coming in the first 2 minutes of play. The Yellow Jackets scored soon afterwards, ending a 62-yard drive, and quickly tallied again for a 14-7 lead. The Wildcats scored again but, failing to convert, stayed behind 14-13. Johnny Thomason put the 'Cats ahead to stay after bulging 4 yards a few minutes later. Neither team was satisfied with the score, as the Yellow Jackets tried desperately to catch the hot Wildcats until the final gun.

GASTONIA 33-26

The stage was set for one of the best football games ever played in Charlotte, when the unbeaten, unscored-upon Gastonia Green Wave invaded the den of the unbeaten Charlotte Central Wildcats for a conference tilt. Both teams played hard all the way with the Wildcats holding an impressive 33-7 advantage at the end of the third quarter. Fine blocking paved the way as Mattison, Ingram, Thomason, Bullard, Strause, and Roberts tallied for Central, while Mattison added the 3 extra points.

With only eight minutes left to play, however, the Green Wave came alive against the Wildcat reserves by adding three quick touchdowns, all by Mike McGinnis. McGinnis literally ran wild in the last quarter, behind beautiful blocking, to scare the faltering Wildcats with a 33-26 final score.

The roots of Central's defense were planted by Bill Bullard, Jac ReVile, Charles Skidmore, Bryon Horne, and Johnny Thomason.

ASHEVILLE 7-0

Meeting a keyed up defense, which made Central's head twirl all night, the Wildcats were barely able to scrape up a 7-0 win over the Maroons in Asheville. The game was a tight defensive duel all the way, with the Maroons on Central's 3 in the first minute of play. The real scare for the 'Cats, however, came when Red Landers scored for Asheville, but the play was called back because of a clipping penalty.

The game's only counting score began on the Wildcats' 30 with a penalty, a 22-yard run by Mattison, a Burris to Widenhouse aerial, and a fourth down 3-yard run by Mattison into the end zone.

Linebackers Bill Bullard and Johnny Thomason tackled viciously all night with ample help from Campbell, Widenhouse, and Moss.

HIGH POINT 25-0

The Wildcats added number seven to the list of undefeated and number five to conference games by blanking High Point 25-0.

The 'Cats outplayed the Bison all the way by rushing 321 yards and taking to the air for 83. Mattison had a good night, as he contributed 113 yards on 11 carries.

The scoring began with Burris tossing Mattison a 23-yard pass to put the ball on the two. On the next play Mattison picked up the needed yardage for a touchdown.

High Point held the 'Cats for the remainder of the half, but on the first few plays of the second period Strause took a punt on his own 32 and carried to the High Point 28. On the next play Mattison circled right end for the second score.

The third score, by a pass to Ingram for 30 yards, ended in a 58-yard drive. Thomason added the final tally with 3 seconds left in the game. Defensive standouts were Moss, Broome, and Bullard.

BURLINGTON 46-0

The Central Wildcats displayed their finest scoring splurge of the season when they amassed a total of 412 yards on the ground and in the air by defeating the Burlington Bulldogs 46-0.

With every Wildcat seeing action and playing well, Central capitalized on every break to hold a 22-0 lead at the half. Led mostly by Dickie Mattison, who scored three times and added two extra points, the 'Cats couldn't make a mistake. Strause, Thomason, Ted Roberts, and Duck Broome also tallied for the victorious Wildcats. Broome's score came early in the third period as he threw Coy Clayton into the end zone on a fine defensive play.

The whole Central lineup played outstanding defensive ball in holding the Bulldogs to 126 yards rushing and 45 yards through the air route. The brilliant defensive spark throughout the game was supplied by Bullard, Burris, Thomason, Campbell, Skidmore, Widenhouse, Martin, and Schrimsher.

WINSTON-SALEM REYNOLDS 7-27

Suffering their first defeat of the year, the Central Wildcats took a heart-breaking loss from the fired-up Demons of Winston-Salem in the 'Cats' last conference game of the season. The Wildcat eleven showed no aggressiveness in the first three quarters, but Pete Burris found Jack Campbell in the end zone during the last period to save a little of the 'Cats' honor.

Reynolds, however, showed no pity as they dominated play throughout the game, scoring four times and adding three extra points. Kroustalis, Shore, Chapple, Davis, and Kelly led the Demons' offensive attack, while their superb defense was sparked by Bill Gramley and Jim Spach.

Jim Martin, Charles Skidmore, Bill Bullard, and Slade Joyner put a spark to what defense the 'Cats could manage.

NEWPORT 40-7

Dickie Mattison led the Central Wildcats over their only out-of-state foe for '52, Newport, Kentucky, by totaling 22 points in two quarters of play. Ted Roberts also showed unstoppable speed by scoring twice in the same number of carries on sprints of 47 and 77 yards. Buddy Strause rounded out the scoring on a 35-yard run in the third period. Strause's score was the only spark of life the Wildcat reserves could muster in the second half, while giving up a lone tally to the Newport eleven.

Beautiful blocking stood out in every Central touchdown with seven Kentuckians hitting the ground on Mattison's first tally.

The 'Cats' defensive standouts were Charles Skidmore, Jac ReVille, Bob Burris, and Jim Martin.

HARDING 14-13

The Central Wildcats fell for the second time during the season by taking a 14-13 defeat for the city championship from the Rams of Harding. The 'Cats, suffering another one of those off-nights against Rams who displayed near perfection, could never get started and fell slightly behind in the statistics.

In the first three minutes of play, Steve Ingram went around his own left end for 22 yards and the score, while Mattison added the extra point. Harding struck back just a few minutes later to end an 81-yard drive led by Doug Hinson. In the second period Johnny Thomason bulled over eight yards for another Wildcat score. Mattison's extra point was nullified by a penalty, and his second try was blocked by a host of Rams.

The game-tying tally came on the second play of the third quarter, when Hinson went 60 yards around end for Harding. Louis Farmer calmly kicked the ball through the uprights, and a city championship was owned by Harding High School.

WINSTON-SALEM REYNOLDS 13-12

Statistics just didn't count as Winston-Salem Reynolds defeated the Central Wildcats for the Western AAA Crown 13-12. The hard fighting 'Cats rolled up 194 yards rushing to the Demons' 85, 72 yards through the air to 30 for Winston, and twelve first downs to Reynolds' six.

The Demons first scored when Johnny Thomason fumbled into the waiting arms of Bob Tudor, who swiftly raced the remaining 28 yards for six points. The extra point was made good by Shelton.

The 'Cats stormed back in the second period with a Burris-Widenhouse pass for 32 yards and the touchdown. Central failed on the point after touchdown attempt. Reynolds added another tally in the third period on a double reverse by Bunky Shore.

With the 'Cats behind 13-6 Pete Burris again took to the air lanes and found Jack Campbell waiting in the end zone for another tally. Campbell's catch was made with two Winston defenders on his back, but Mattison's extra point attempt missed. The score stood 13-12 at the final whistle.

BASKETBALL RESUME

The 1953 Wildcats operated this year under the guidance of a new basketball coach, Irv Edelman. They jumped from their pre-season role of conference underdog to the number one position at the close of their fourteen-game conference slate.

The fast-breaking 'Cats depended mostly on the fine performances of Bob Shaw, Ed Berryhill, Carson McClain, Jim Regehr and Slade Joyner. These starters, however, were pressed all season for their berths by such outstanding reserves as Lawrence Conder, Sam Williams, Claude Plumlee, Charles Patterson, Ross Johnson, Tom Hasty, and Tommy Graham.

The Cecil Street Cagers began the season by trouncing their first five rivals, including two highly rated conference teams, Asheville and Burlington. Edelman's courtmen faced their first loss to a tall Greensboro quintet, but they bounced back to win seven straight before losing to Asheville in the mountain city. The 'Cats then cinched first place in the Western Conference and the right to face Durham in the State Tournament at Winston-Salem by taking four of the next five conference tilts.

On March 12, the Wildcat courtmen traveled to Winston-Salem to meet the Durham Bulldogs, who held the fourth place spot in the Eastern Conference. The 'Cats won the hearts of practically every basketball fan in the beautiful R. J. Reynolds' gym by staging the greatest comeback in the tournament's history. The next night the 'Cat Cagers lost a close semi-final contest to a speedy Wilmington five.

Honors ran high for the Central team this year. Carson McClain was the only player in the Western AAA Conference named All-State. He was also named on the All-City team, the All-Conference teams as chosen by the Greensboro Daily News and the Charlotte Observer, and was voted Most Valuable Player by his teammates. Jimmy Regehr was on the All-Conference team and received honorable mention on the All-State. Ed Berryhill was All-City and received honorable mention on the All-State and All-Conference teams. Central's two unheralded guards, Bob Shaw and Slade Joyner, led the Wildcats all year with their ball handling and needy assists thru-out the '53 season.

TRACK TEAM

The 1953 Central High Track Team will be out to repeat the performance of last year's squad, which captured the State Championship meet in Chapel Hill.

The "Cat Cindermen," coached by Leslie Outterson and Bill Ball, have planned nine colorful meets for this year's schedule, including the defense of their State Title at Chapel Hill, May 8. The Queen City Relays and the City-County meet will also be big tests for the Wildcats.

This year's squad will be lead by Co-Captains Jim Beatty, H. F. Carriker, and David Outterson. Beatty, the state's best mile-man, Carriker, a speedy on the dashes, and Outterson, the club's leader in the field events, are all expected to give the Cats a well balanced team.

Coach Outterson has found a larger interest in track this year than in previous ones; therefore, all events are expected to be much stronger than in the past.

First row: Donald Cooke, Bill Bullard, Buddy Strause, H. F. Carriker, Clyde Mears, Frank Bennet, Tommy Hutchins, Jim Weller, Harry Poovey.

TENNIS TEAM

Coach George Sawyer's 1953 tennis team, led by Captain Tommy Holder, should add some championship trophies to the Central collection. It will be hard for the Wildcat netters to miss with such talented lettermen returning as Tommy Holder, Mercer Blankenship, Richard Angstadt, Benny Martin, and Tom Westmoreland. Some other top net men are Tom Ray, John DeCoursey, Sammy Williams, Bobby McWaters and Billy Knauff.

The 15-match schedule will take the netters to Newton-Conover, High Point, and N. C. State, including many other neighboring cities. Their home schedule will include such teams as Myers Park, Statesville, and Morganton.

REFLECTIONS

When I reflect on what my future holds;
 And also on the life that I have led;
 I ponder life and of the way it molds
 Youth's character to face the days ahead.

Age laughs at adolescent's growing pains;
 They smile and say we do not understand.
 But some day they will see that youth contains
 A power greater than the adult hand.

Youth's eyes are clear; their eager minds unmarred
 From dissolution's ever dread disease.
 Their blood is hot; they think with slight regard
 Of cautious living, paths of fatuous ease.

But youth will not condemn with bitter tongue,
 Remembering the aged once were young.

PROPHECY

"For Pete's pity!" I yelled. "I thought old Constantine had forgotten all about me." But there it was, all down in black and white:

You are cordially invited to attend

The Inaugural Ball

Honoring the 44th President of the United States

(+ $? - ' ' ) ( * ♦ c $ × . ' & $ ) ( ♣ ♠ ♣ * ¼ ★ ? : ) $ ! ( ' ) )

(That's Greek for Gus Dallas)

I rushed madly to my little wife and told her the magic news.

"Honey, guess what? Gus invited me to the Inaugural Ball; I'm going to Washington!"

Before I knew it, the white dome of the city greeted my eyes, and I was a part of the thousands of people looking into the luminous, compassionate eyes of our next President. I plopped my bifocals into position and scanned the row of hotshots behind the very dignified and distinguished President-elect. Let's see, where is she? Oh, there's the First Lady-to-be. She is the former Mamie Goodwin. Gee, it's unusual, to say the least—two Mamies in the White House in less than thirty years. There's Billy Alexander, the new Veep, and Tommy Cassidy, the new Ambassador to France. Heard he's making out with those French dolls (the kind that don't break, that is!). And there's George Solada, old faithful. I remember when he took over Taft's position. Oh, I see Mike Wilson, Secretary of Defense, and there's that wife of his, Monica, beside him. It's a shame that she had to give up her brilliant golf career because of that tragic accident. She had the tournament in the bag when she slipped and fell in the 18th hole while making her final putt. It took the ASFRODHB (Amalgamated Society for the Rescue of Distressed Human Beings) forty-eight hours to rescue her. I can see why she's gone into politics with her husband.

Oh, there's Helen Patterson. She's the new secretary to the assistant to the assistant to the secretary of the under-secretary of Lower Slobovia.

Gee, to think that all these world figures were in my class!

Before I could say ' ' + " & % ' ) √ z " , Gus-Gus was taking the oath. He blew a kiss to someone, then said something about, "I'll be home, Mama. Wait for me!" and the Inauguration was over. The afternoon had gone with the wind, and I was plodding down to the Inaugural Dance. In I trotted to the ballroom. It was beautifully decorated with goat's cheese (the new President's favorite food) hanging daintily from the ceiling. Then who should I see but Mary Lou and Nancy Davis, the new Toni Twins.

"Hello," I said. "I've been hearing so much about you two lately. By the way, which of you has the Toni?"

"Oh, Mary Lou, definitely," piped Nancy. "Here, you can see for yourself," as they handed me their hair. I quickly said my fond adieus and excused myself.

From these two I made my way to the punch bowl, but my attention was suddenly attracted to some incoherent babblings which sounded something like a monkey festival. I craned my neck and whom should I see but Tina Quinn and Franny Barker carrying on a very quiet conversation(?).

"Tina! Franny!" I yelled.

"Come on over, you guys!" I heard.

Believe it or not, I found that these two are heads of the world's biggest chlorophyll chewing gum plant. Their slogan is "More clubs to the chew with Chickles."

I reached the punch bowl safely?! Let me have some—

"Well, look who's here!" I bellowed. "Henry 'Bear' Lomax. What are you doing these days?"

"Why, raising little bears, of course," he retorted, and off he lumbered to his mate.

"Such a happy fellow," I thought.

I turned to get my drink, and whom should I see but Annette Niven. She told me that she and Tip Heffner are playing on Broadway in "A Kittycart Named Desire." Hear they've really carted the awards off, too. Both won the coveted Lead Medals last year in Hollywood. People are saying their success is due to their top-notch agent, Mary Gin Farr, who takes only a modest 90% of their earnings.

Oh, there are Joan Ashcraft, Peggy Daniel, Penny Smith, and Elaine McSwain. Gee, seems that everybody's getting the middle-age spread.

"Well, what are you four doing now? You're all looking . . . healthy. Modeling corsets, eh? Well, I'm sure you all fit in just fine."

"Emery McDonough is directing the band!" they yelled as they clobbered out of sight. "Try to see him."

"Yeah, I will! Oh, there he is now. Emery, wait a minute. Gee, you haven't changed a bit. How's Norma?"

"She's fine. Have you heard the new theme song she wrote for me? It's called 'I've Got Tears in My Ears from Lying on My Back in the Bed While I Cry Over You'."

"How wonderful! What's the rest of the Central gang doing now? I see that all of them didn't make it to the Ball."

"Well," he drawled, "you knew Pete Burris and Duck Broome had retired from pro football, didn't you? Well, they've gone home to their chicken farms and Jackie and JoAnn."

"Oh, guess what! Vee Copses' and Nancy Gilchrist's ballet troupe has been touring the continent for three years. Vee and Nancy are two of the ballet's greatest prima donnas, but the top drawing cards are their partners. Scrump Schrimsher and Jac ReVille, in their version of the world famed ballet, Moby Dick."

"By the way, 'Bitter Bob' Shaw and the fifth Mrs. Shaw (the former Adele Hagood) are honeymooning in the Belgian Congo."

"Jimmy Beatty has finally settled down with the girl of his dreams, the world's champion lady wrestler, Neddy Mason. They were married in a stirring ceremony performed at ringside by Tom Ray. Sandy Archer was best man and Elizabeth Martin was maid-of-honor. Instead of the traditional kiss, the marriage was sealed with Jimmy and Neddy's getting a hammer-lock on each other."

"Getting back to football," he continued, "'Peanut' Howard has just been made head coach at UNC, and he's taking Bryan Horne and Ross Johnston with him as his assistants."

"Oh, I know you'll be glad to hear this. The four most famous Conover models are here."

"For Pete's sake, who are they?" I asked.

"Why, you know them—Shirley Ferrell, Jayne Creech, Zoe Psomadakis, and Jeanette Finger. They've been modeling grass skirts this afternoon for Kurt Conner's TV program," he grinned. "You know Kurt took over Arthur Godfrey's show when old Carrot-top kicked the bucket. Kurt always has such educational programs."

"Well, Bob, I've got to get back to the orchestra. There's Sandra Hutchins over there. She's taken over Louella Parsons' column, so if you want more gossip just say 'Hey' to her and she'll give you the juicy tidbits."

"By the way, stick around. Janice Kirby and Judy Hobbs are going to warble a few tunes."

"Well, great. I knew they could make a success."

"Yeah, but they sound horrible with false teeth."

I wandered on off.

"Hey, Sandra!" I yelled. Emery was right. I said "Hey," and Sandra said:

"Well now, you're not to tell this to anyone, of course, but did you know that Sarah Leak, Barbara Stockton, and Harriet Bobbitt have formed an old maids' club? Yes, they just gave up at last."

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF '53

"I'm a Wildcat horn ..."

There it stood, Central High School. A brisk September day in 1950 found us forcing our unsure feet toward the portals that would engulf us in activity for the next three years. The confidence that had been built up from being top guys in junior high was overshadowed by the reality of being sophomores in senior high.

Those first few weeks were spent in grasping-grasping at the newness of our situation, at the strange system whereby students had voice in operating the school, and always trying to remember the name of that kind senior who had directed us to a classroom that just didn't seem to be there.

It didn't take long for us to adjust ourselves. Penny Smith, Pat Hunter, Catharine May, and Pete Burris were elected class officers to guide us through those trying days. Individual home room parties and afterwards the grand finale, an old fashioned square dance for the whole class, knitted us into a unified group.

Our senses were still drinking in many new sensations, such as the sight of the powerful football team sparked by Larry Parker, the sound of the juke box blaring in the Maid, the taste of a hamburger in preference to a dinner in the cafeteria, and the smell of chemicals coming from the lab room.

"I'm a Wildcat bred ..."

The second semester found us stepping forth from the melting pot that so wonderfully blended products of A.G. and Piedmont and yet allowed each one of us to retain so much individuality.

Lee Kerlin, Bob Shaw, Pat Hunter, and Kurt Conner were chosen to lead us even further and higher into making for us a place of prominence in the school that even in this short time we had grown to love. The end of the year found us proud possessors of our first SNIPS AND CUTS.

Graduation and summer separated us from the seniors with whom we had made friendships.

Another September rolled around. This time, either from a summer's experience or because most of us now sported a driver's license, we passed the sweeping willows and entered those no longer frightening doors to take our places as juniors. As we scanned the football programs, we recognized many from our class taking prominent positions. In addition to our class officers, Buck Griffin, Kurt Conner, Slade Joyner, and Henry Lomax, we could boast two officers on the Student Council, Lee Kerlin and Sammy Williams. We stepped into the fast moving pace that Central was setting in leading all other schools of the state. We had a chance to see in the Male Animal, a faculty play, the lighter side of our teachers. Football season closed with a total of six wins and six losses.

The second semester found our class taking once again two Student Council offices, secretary and treasurer, with Buck Griffin and Penny Smith filling these positions. We found competent class officers in Emery McDonough, Jimmy Beatty, Billy Knauff, and Pete Burris. After many weeks of rehearsing the operetta, Martha, was presented and made a smash hit.

That was a year to remember. All custom of the past was cast aside, for this was Leap Year and a dance was nearing. While the boys waited to be asked, the girls worried about getting the car. All the confusion and hilarity produced the best dance that Central had ever experienced.

The basketball team made a great record in winning seventeen out of twenty-one games. The golf, track, and tennis teams filled out a sports' year that any school would be proud to claim.

The approach of spring was accented by whispers of the Junior Senior. Evolving from many hours of work and planning, the affair was praised highly by the seniors.

Reverberating in our whole being was the forceful beckoning of the outdoors, so the Key Club and G. G. S. beat a path to the seashore and the Bible Club experienced a week-end of inspiration and fellowship at Kings Mountain.

Honors and Awards Day, although memorable and exciting, served as an omen to the seniors that their life in a semi-paradise would soon end.

The junior year concluded with memories of friends, sports, teachers, and work still challenging us to something bigger and better—the senior year.

It was here at last. One of our life goals had been reached. We were seniors. The honor and responsibility of leading the class in the first semester fell on Dick Buckley, Slade Joyner, Emery McDonough, and Kurt Conner. The whole school felt the importance of Student Government in building school spirit, framing laws, revising the constitution, and planning projects of services for the school, as it was led by the very capable and hard-working Buck Griffin, assisted by Claude Plumlee, Vernon Hunter, and Ed Myers.

Things were really popping. College Day straightened us out on plans for further education. We laughed for weeks about the side-splitting antics of Bobby Penny in Charlie's Aunt. A champion football team expertly coached by Mr. Madden, Mr. Ball, and Mr. Edelman barely missed taking the AAA western conference title. Individual honors were heaped on our class. Jayne Creech represented Central in the Christmas Festival, Catharine May was elected Miss Hi Miss, Millie Morris received the D.A.R. award, and Dickie Mattison achieved an All-Southern rating.

Many things added to the success of the year; such as, the Christmas Cantata, the new Traffic Court, the counseling program, the revising of the constitution, the newly painted rooms, the timely presentation of the news in the Rambler, and the thrilling performance of the basketball team. The spiritual life of the school was strengthened by the Thanksgiving Assembly and the Christmas play.

The Student Council elections found the A.B.C.'s, the Four Aces, and the Howdy Doody Kids hattling for the positions. The results of the election placed Vernon Hunter, Dick Buckley, Helen Patterson, and Tom Ray in office. Then came the important decision of choosing the second semester class officers. Selected from a group of many capable candidates were Bill Brandon, Bobby Penny, Jim Martin, and Lawrence Conder.

The unity and co-operativeness of the school was exhibited when the Chorus, Orchestra, Dramatics and Art Departments combined forces to present the all-time great operetta, "The Yeomen of the Guard."

"I'm a Wildcat dead ..."

A senior's life at Central ends on graduation night. Never again except through the guise of an alumnus will he support athletic functions, share ideas in clubs, walk uptown with the gang, slip a ring on for the first time, thrill to the beauty of an operetta, or walk the hallowed halls. Buried in minds are the hours of study, locked in hearts are the cherished friendships, and etched deeply into the depths of memory is the image of what was once our Central.

Looking up to us are the future classes; looking down at us are past classes. Nostalgia and unmeasurable thankfulness overwhelm us as we fill another page of Central's history.

VERNON HUNTER, Historian

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE SENIOR CLASS

We, the distinguished but modest Class of 1953 from Central High School, being fully possessed of minds containing all the erudition possible to be assimilated in three years of high school, do heartily bequeath a tittle, tad, dab, and iota of our talent, uniqueness, temperament, and performance to those foolishly attempting to follow in our footsteps.

For the explanation above and for the reasons held only in the hearts of those who have run the gauntlet of high school existence, we do soberly on this .... day of ..... in the year One Thousand, Nine Hundred Fifty-three, broach and bruit this our Last Will and Testament.

ARTICLE I—TO THE FACULTY

Items:

1. To Mr. John Otts, we leave our gratitude for your methods of regulating the school and your helpfulness in shaping our lives.
2. To Miss Marion Fraser and Mr. Bill Anderson, we resign ourselves to any of the many things you may desire in the future, for we feel that you must have missed one or two of our faux pas.
3. To Miss Barbarah McDonald, we bequeath this tender poem:
"We luf you little,
We luf you big,
We luf you like
A little pig!"

4. To Miss Nancy Abell, we will our appreciation for her helping hand in the affairs of student government.
5. To the entire faculty, we give acknowledgment for three years of invigorating, beneficial, and influential association. We hope that your efforts will be of good avail.

ARTICLE II—TO THE UNDERCLASSMEN

Items:

1. To the juniors, we leave ole C. H. S., the best-in-life high school, in hopes that you endear her halls to your hearts while missing our miscues.
2. To the sophomores, we bestow the middle years of high school with trust that you will not falter when the going gets rough.
3. To the half&halfs, we donate our used school books with assumption that they will be opened and absorbed with regularity.

ARTICLE III—TO THE PRE-EMINENT ENTITIES

Items:

1. I, Claude Plumlee, leave Maxine and my loose set of uppers to Alton Widenhouse, but while the teeth are false I hope Maxine will be true.
2. I, Fundy, go out for Jack V. Campbell on a Prestige label.
3. I, Bill Bullard, will my great line play and triangle love affairs to Neil Jones.
4. We, Joanne Carter and Ossie Broome, Pete Burris and Jackie Furr, Dan Vogel and June Beaver, bequeath our meeting place nooks to Steve Ingram and Sara Lynn Black, Joe Riggs and Betsy Villas.
5. I, Dickie Mattison, leave mellow looks and famous gridiron feats to the stump, Johnnie Thomason.
6. I, I¢ Smith, will my valiant campaign speeches to anyone who can speak long for naught, but still serve Central with a smile.
7. I, Bob Penny, leave my "Slaggo" look to Guy Soule.
8. I, Bob Shaw, leave my disinterest in women and basketball dribble to Carson "Pecker" McClain.
9. I, Gus Dallas, leave.
10. I, Zoe Psomadakis, leave my beautiful "hidden thought" eyes to next year's basketball sponsor.

11. We, Bill Knauff and Dick Buckey, will our more casual moments to Ed Turner and Joe Broadway.

12. I, Ross Johnston, hope that I don't leave to Bradford Mills my bench under "the Irv."

13. I, Nancy Gilchrist, will my ability to smack up (a car ... I mean) to Pat McClellan, who is well on her way.

14. I, Jim Beatty, bestow my stride on the track and with the gals to any junior boy who is fast enough.

15. I, Emery McDonough, leave my homespun wit to the helper of the state, Barry Clark.

16. I, Jim Martin, leave my cured "Hopalong Gait" to "The Driver" Freddie Castles.

17. We, Hal Carnes and Frank Bennett, leave the black spot to Tommy Lindsay and Conrad Grimes.

18. Nosotros, John Roberts and Donnie Whitfield, queden nuestro amor di Espanol a Senorita Marlene Ritch y Senor Scoop Sparrow.

19. I, Jimmy Ward, leave my Birmingham Hop to Bobby Burris with the hope that it will be added to his one-two-three flub step.

20. I, Dicky Jordan, leave my ability to make the Last Will and Testament two years running to anybody who thinks he can do anything more unusual.

21. We, Henry Lomax and Buck Griffin, will our records of varied success to Tommy Graham and Baine Martin with hopes that the two years they have to work will be full ones.

22. I, Tip Helfner, bestow my late-found fame to Don Harris.

23. We, Dolores Dollar and Peggy Daniel, bequeath our beauty and vocal talents to Judies Walker and Anderson.

24. I, "Big Al" Hildreth, leave all the local basketball stomping grounds, especially "Thy Jumping Hut," to Bill Mason.

25. I, Tina Quinn, will my bounce and sparkle to Jackie Hart.

26. I, "someone who thinks that he could care," am for the many listeners of Kilgo's Korner.

27. We, the students of Mr. Karl Sawyer, leave to the lucky few of the junior class moments of mathematical elation and amelioration that will surely be of avail to us in future years.

28. I, Bill Brandon, will my acquisition of knowledge and cute smile to Bobby Gregg.

29. I, Vee Copses, bestow my hard work on the keyboard and yelping yells of cheer to some cute junior girl who can do so much in so little time.

30. I, Tommy Holder, leave my tennis balls to the over-the-net juniors who try to swing a cool racket.

31. I, David Outtersen, bequeath my good track work under a fine man, my dad, to somebody who can really hurl the bull.

32. I, Chaucer, wait for the rising juniors with hopes that you enjoy my "cut" ribaldry style.

33. I, Uncle Sam, call a few of my needed boys to the field of battle to light for a cause that is worth fighting for.

34. I, Larry Austin, leave my poke of oratorical victories to Bonson Hobson.

35. In closing, we, the Class of 1953, abandon the halls but not the soul of Central. We vacate the rooms but not the memories. We bequeath the records but not the joys. Yes, we leave Central, but we carry with us three meaningful years. Bene vale.
